

Attention FDA

0356 '00 MAY -4 AM:01

It came to my attention that the FDA is being asked to take away my right to sign a medical waiver before purchasing a hearing aid. Instead I would be forced to have a medical exam or hearing test. Here's my views and/or experiences on several related questions?

1. Should I be forced to have a medical exam and/or hearing test before purchasing a hearing aid? If so, should the FDA pay for the exam?

NO —

2. Some people are physically unable to drive to a doctor or hearing specialist, or have had bad experiences they don't want to repeat. For instance ...

I AM Able to Drive to see A Doctor or a hearing specialist —

3. Should the FDA take away my Constitutional Right, affirmed by the Supreme Court, to decide for myself my medical exams and treatment?

I HAVE had to go without a hearing aid for years — Because I could not afford to purchase one AT Belton because of the expense —

4. Should I be allowed to purchase hearing aids by mail as I choose?

When I Found out about Excel Hearing Aids it was by accident — when they sent me their literature of Hearing Aids I could believe the Low Prices — About a 1/3.
